WICHITA MARKETS.

The Receipts of Stock at the Wichita Union Stock Yards for the past 24 Hours Were as Follows: 43 Cattle, 860 Hogs. Shipments: 100 Cattle, 312

Cattle receipts were small today. There was a fair sprinkling of fair to good stuff among the offerings, while there were some common cattle on sale. There was no fluctuation in prices at all. The market was dull for the want of something to work on, but what was in sold rapidly enough, even there being little trouble in disposing of the common stuff, the latter, however, selling at very low prices. The supply of good butcher stuff does not meet the wants of local killers, and consequently such stock has been selling strong for e past few days, and sold high today. Kansas City was reported lower and Chicago higher today.

The receipts of hogs today were small. and did not supply the two packing houses. Quality was very fair, the average being much above Saturday's offerings. There were very few lights on the market. The market opened 5@10 cents lower, heavies selling 5 cents lower than Saturday's close, and the common and medium generally having to suffer a decline of 7% or 10 cents, according to their quality. Light hogs were steady with Saturday's prices. Tops today, $5.05; bulk, $4.85@4.90; lights, $3.25@3.75. The market closed stendy

BARBARISM PRACTICED BY MANY CIVILIZED NATIONS.

The Flendish Custom of Torturing Pris oners-Some of the Fearful Modes in Operation in Bussia and Turkey-Russians Are Inhuman but Turks Are Worse

MERCHANTS The examination of accused persons by torture is permitted today in only two European states, Turkey and Russia. The method in Russia is illustrated in the experience of forty-six prisoners recently condemned on political charges at Warsaw. The details may seem incredible, but they are circumstantially given by a delegate from Poland to Western Europe, the accuracy of whose statements there is no reason to doubt. The charge against the forty-six Poles was that of "belonging to a secret society which had for its object to alter, sooner or later, the existing form of government." This they were told verbally, no written document whatsoever being shown to them. Political suspects are not allowed to seek any legal advice in self defense. The investigation is managed not by judges or lawyers, but by officers of the gendarmerie. The gendarmes are paid double salary while engaged in political investigation, and it is therefore to their interests to protract the process as much as possible.

MAKING A PRISONER INSANE. Among the accused was one Ladislas Guisbert. He was a private tutor of good reputation. While in prison he fell ill with a fever and became delirious. Little or no care was taken of him, but on the contrary attempts were made to profit by the disturbed condition of his mind to extort confessions from him. The gendarmes hit upon an ingenious device to weaken his mind by breaking up his rest. Every half hour or so during the night they would enter his cell under the pretext of attending to a small oil lamp.

They made such a noise and clatter that the prisoner awoke, and then the gendarines would question him, thinking that in his half sleepy condition he might make some imprudent answers. Sometimes Colonel Bielanowski caused this unfortunate man to be brought out of his cell after midnight, so that he might sign the minutes or protocol of questions that had been put to him while he was in bed.

Such treatment, inflicted at a moment when the patient was suffering from fever, so aggravated the delirium that ultimately Ladislas Guisbert completely lost his reason. After a time he became a raving lunatic and was removed to a madhouse. Another prisoner, named Ferdinand Zaleski, was asked to give information about the propaganda carried on in the factories of Warsaw and neighborhood. He refused to turn informer. Thereupon the authorities gave orders that Zaleski should be conveyed to another part of the prison and severely flogged. Colonel Bielanowski accompanied the prisoner and took his seat at a little table well provided with writing materials and directed that the prisoner should be questioned while being flogged.

ONE MAN'S TORTURE. The colonel was ready to take down his answers, and doubtless had these proved satisfactory the severity of th flogging would have been mitigated. Zaleski bravely endured the torture. He did not answer a question or utter a Hickory Shirting, 1500 yards, Calico Shirting, 500 yards Winsey, 1600 yards, Chiller Shirting, 500 yards Winsey, 1600 yards, Clothing, Grocories, Notions, Hartware Medical Supplies, School Books, etc., and a long list of miscelianeous articles, such as Harness, Plows, Bakes, Forks, etc., and for about 35 Wagnots required for the service, to be delivered at Chicago Kansas City, and Short City. Also for such Wagnots as that be required, adapted to the climate of the Pacific Coast, with California brakes, delivered at Sup Francisco.

Also, transportation for such of the articles, goods, and supplies that may not be contracted for to be delivered at the Agancies.

Schotules showing the kinds and quantities of school, and the kinds and quantities in gross, of all other goods and articles, together with blank proposals, conditions to be observed by bidders, time and place of delivery, terms of contract and payment, transportation reutes, and all other necessary instructions will be furnished upon application to the Indian Office in Washington, or Nos 65 and 67 Wooster street, New York, the Commissaries of Subsistence, U. S. A. at Chevenne, Chicago, Leavan, worth, Omaha, Saint Louis, Saint Paul, and San Francisco, the Poctmasiers at Sioux City, Iowa, Yankton, S. Dakota: Arkansas City, Caldwell, Topeka, and Wichita, Kansas, and Tucson Ariona.

The right is reserved by the Government to reject any and all bias, or any part of Sang bed, and these proposals are invited under provise that appropriation shall be made for the supplies by Congress.

Bids will be opened at the hour and day abore stated, and bidders are invited to be present at the opening.

CERTIFIED CHECKS.

All bids most be accompanied by certified checks or draft upon acong Links State Biesenbares. word. This man had been cruelly tordiction of the diplomatic representatives of their respective countries, but the natives, whether Christian er Turk, are at the mercy of the sultan and his agents. Western forms of trial are unknown. and while imprisonment is the nominal penalty for many crimes, Turkish imprisonment is a lingering death. The about the hospitality of people whom he had met, and told of a family in Virginia methods of extracting information from that had kept him and his horse two days accused persons in Turkey would be almost incredible in a civilized country.

TURKEY EVEN WORSE THAN RUSSIA. The bastinado is freely applied on sus picton of the most trifling offences. It is true that the beating often includes the penalty of conviction. The magis trate causes the prisoner to be thrashed until he has confessed and then lets him go as sufficiently punished. But suspected political offenders, who in Turkey as in all despotic countries are considered among the gravest, are dealt with in ways that make the bastinado seem a pleasant pastime. During the panic in Constantinople on the subject of an Armenian insurrection hundreds of Armenians were arrested and thrown into prison. It has been openly charged that several of them died under tortures applied with a view of obtaining evidence of a conspiracy that had no existence. One man was laid in the courtyard of the prison, in the glare of the sun, bound hand and foot, and his face besmeared with some sweet substance to attract flies.

Another was hung up by hands and feet, and still another was compelled to walk up and down, pulled along by soldiers, who relieved each other in detail. never permitting their victim to rest a moment. A number of the Armenians perished in this way before the Turks came to the conclusion that no insurrec tion was thought of. Then the sultan ordered the wholesale release of all that remained.—Chicago Hould.

A Natural Defect. A high personage, on visiting a small country place, asked the Sindaco: "How is it that all the children go bare foot in this neighborhood?"
